

Summer Reading Program

June 23 – Aug. 8
FOR ALL AGES

All three Carlsbad City Library locations will host the annual Summer Reading Program from June 23 – Aug. 8, featuring activities, reading incentives and entertainment. This year's theme is "Paws to Read." Best of all, the program is free! Sponsored by Friends of the Carlsbad Library.

Summer Reading Program Concert featuring Jimmy & Enrique

Thursday, June 19
6:30 – 7:30 p.m.

 Library Learning Center
3368 Eureka Place

Jimmy & Enrique will perform a lively concert featuring guitar with exotic percussive rhythms to kick off the Summer Reading Program. After the concert, enjoy a "petting zoo" of instruments and make your own music. Hear their music at www.jimmyandenrique.com. Admission is free. Seating is limited and first come, first served. Sponsored by Friends of the Carlsbad Library.

THE SPITFIRE GRILL – A MUSICAL

by Fred Alley and James Valcq

Directed by Kathy Brombacher

This heartwarming tale follows a young woman, Percy, as she starts her life anew upon her release from prison. The work she finds as a waitress at a ramshackle diner puts her on the path to a reawakening. The story is told in beautiful music and songs performed live by the cast and musicians.

Monday, June 16

7:30 p.m.

LOVE, LOSS AND WHAT I WORE

by Nora Ephron and Delia Ephron

Directed by Kristianne Kurner

In a series of comic, sad and bittersweet vignettes, women reflect on the turning points of their lives and the clothing that accompanied them through the experiences — whether prom dress, miniskirt, tracksuit or Brownie uniform — helping them shape, escape and understand their identities.

May: Academy Award Nominees

Wednesday, May 14
6 p.m.
GRAVITY
(2013, PG-13, 91 min.)

Awe-inspiring visual effects pair with heart-stopping suspense in this story of a bio-medical engineer — Sandra Bullock in a critically acclaimed performance — who finds herself adrift and struggling to return to Earth when tragedy strikes on her first mission to space.

Wednesday, May 21
6 p.m.
AMERICAN HUSTLE
(2013, R, 138 min.)

Acting powerhouses Christian Bale, Bradley Cooper, Amy Adams and Jennifer Lawrence headline this tale of a manic FBI agent who pulls a team of con artists into his scheme to nab corrupt government officials. This crime comedy/drama also acts as a time capsule of the late '70s and early '80s.

Wednesday, May 28
6 p.m.
12 YEARS A SLAVE
(2013, R, 134 min.)

This Best Picture winner tells the incredible and devastating true story of Solomon Northup (Chiwetel Ejiofor), a free black man from upstate New York, who was abducted and sold into slavery. In his 12th year of captivity, an encounter with an abolitionist (Brad Pitt) forever changes his fate.

June: Page to Screen

Wednesday, June 11
6 p.m.
THE SECRET LIFE OF
WALTER MITTY
(2013, PG, 125 min.)

Introspection and humor come together in this reworking of the classic James Thurber story of a dreamer who escapes from his humdrum life into a fantasy world of adventure and action. Ben Stiller directs and stars with Kristin Wiig.

Wednesday, June 18
6 p.m.
PHILOMENA
(2013, PG-13, 98 min.)

Based on the book The Lost Child of Philomena Lee, this part tearjerker, part odd-couple comedy tells the true story of a journalist (Steve Coogan) who joins forces with a woman named Philomena Lee (Judi Dench) to track down the son she was forced to give up for adoption 50 years earlier.

Wednesday, June 25
6 p.m.
THE GREAT GATSBY
(2013, PG-13, 142 min.)

Director Baz Luhrmann brings his own brand of spectacle to the classic F. Scott Fitzgerald story of loss, obsession and decadence amid the wealth of the Roaring '20s. Leonardo DiCaprio plays Jay Gatsby, the millionaire who seeks to recreate the past by reclaiming his now-married former love, Daisy (Carey Mulligan). Eye-popping sets and costumes earned the picture Oscars for Best Costume Design and Best Production Design.
